Completion of the remodeling of Grossmann hall, men's dormitory, will be climaxed by re-dedication service tomorrow. Dr. C. H. Becker, president of the college, will be the dedicatory speaker at the services, which will begin at 2:30 p.m.

Many improvements have been made in Grossmann hall. Most of the $30,000 budget was spent in the addition of third floor. This floor is completely modern and has excellent lighting facilities, new furniture, asphalt tile floors, new woodwork and modern lavatories which contain showers, mirrors and other rest room fixtures.

Other floors were given many innovations, which include re-plastering the floors, painting woodwork, adding composition ceiling tile, new light fixtures and completely remodeling lavatories. In addition, telephones have been added on each floor.

First floor is to be the home of the new men's lounge. A modern kitchen complete with refrigerator, electric stove, sink and cupboards is in connection with the lounge and is to be available for club use.

New Arrival Times Announced For Wartburg Hall Commuters

By Bill Boyken

New timetable of the Wartburg College Limited Railway concerning arrival times in Grand Central Station (called Wartburg hall) were announced Thursday by Engineer Ernest Oppermann, Superintendent, Barbak Schick and Steward Rose LaBach.

In answer to various complaints from commuters, the new schedule will feature later arrivals, so that the passengers may enjoy to a fuller degree the ride from the Duke-line station to Goodnight-Kiss depot.

Schedule held strictly.

Schedule will be strictly adhered to, according to railway officials, and persons missing the train will be deprived of service for a period of time depending upon the number of minutes they delayed departure time.

Lateness from five to 10 minutes on a 12 o'clock train or from 10 to 15 minutes on other occasions will deprive the commuter of riding privileges for one hour. Lateness from 11 to 20 minutes late on a 12 o'clock or 10 to 40 minutes late on other days will cancel privileges for one week and from 7 p.m. on Friday to 8 a.m. on Monday.

Depends On Seriousness.

More serious deviations from schedule will result in a longer cancellation period.

Following is the timetable as

Fortress To Select

Fortress staff members will choose the typical male Wartburg student who will be featured in a fiction illustrating college life on the Wartburg campus, according to plans released this week by Fortress Editor Melvin Gierler.

A pictorial story of one day in the life of Mr. Wartburg from the time the alarm rings in the morning until "lights out," including meals, classes, activities, a date and any evening ball season, will constitute the feature.

Queen, Court Smile Welcome

Unity Of Purpose Needed

Unity of purpose is one of the prime requisites of success. Particularly in the case of an institution such as Wartburg, whose guidance and direction is the business of not only the administration but the whole American Lutheran church, this unity is extremely important to the life and growth of a college.

With so many persons directly interested in Wartburg college, it is this presence of unity or the lack of unity which will determine the pathway that Wartburg will follow. With everyone united behind the goal of making Wartburg ever greater and finer, this college will find a success and expansion beyond the expectations of her most ardent supporters. On the other hand, indifference, indecision and outright conflict will dampen and dispel any hopes of making Wartburg the college for which so many persons work and pray.

We need the type of unity that will accept criticism and recognize failure, for only by doing these things can we correct and improve the weaker points of our school.

We need the type of unity that will discard out-dated tradition and accept new ideas, for new ideas mean change and change should mean progress and progress means life.

We need the type of unity that will sacrifice thought, time, energy and resources, for all these things are needed to achieve a momentum of progress that will carry Wartburg to even greater heights.

We need the type of unity that will dispel discouragement and go on in the face of disappointment, for discouragement and disappointment are sure to accompany change.

Wartburg today is towering. It is towering in physical facilities, it is towering in academic opportunities, it is towering in prestige. Wartburg is towering because of the united efforts of many individuals, the united wealth of many donations, the united power of many prayers.

Today, Homecoming for the year 1949, the invitation goes to all the administration, faculty, students, alumni and friends of Wartburg to watch Wartburg college TOWER IN UNITY.

Hold That Line!

The ball game is approaching the end. White is ahead by one touchdown, but now Black is knocking on the door. The ball is on the one-yard stripe, and from a touchdown, that would mean victory for Black, if the conversion is made.

There are a number of unusual features about this ball game. It has lasted for some two thousand years, both teams coming close to scoring several times after that first TD by White, but always being pushed back just in the nick of time. Furthermore, the referee has hidden the face of the clock, so that no one really knows exactly how much time is left. The players know that the end of the game is near, but they don't know just when the game will go off.

The game has been an unusual one all along. During the first period, White was full of fire and enthusiasm, outplaying Black by a wide margin. But as the game progressed, the team lost its unity, individual players seeking personal honors. Several times, White almost forfeited the game because of differences between some of the stars.

Now the opponents making up in team spirit what they lack in brilliant plays, are knocking at the door and the game is determined to win this game, do or die.

Both teams' coaches have sent in carefully new teams every generation, but now White's latest team has come on the field, a different that previous year and, if possible, push back far enough to stall for time until the end of the game.

What kind of a play is Black going to use against this new team? Obviously, and this case out because on a play-to-play basis, the defending team is far too superior. Line plungers, then. The power-play, the divided line of the Whites will never be able to stand the onslaught of the powerful and spirited Blacks.

What will the next few seconds bring? Is the game almost over? Is Black going to get that last touchdown? Or is the White line going to hold, against all expectations?

Those questions will be answered shortly. The hidden clock is winding up to strike. The final gun is cocked. Time will tell. Hold that line, White! Hold that line!

Involved As History Of College Is Homecoming At Wartburg

By Roger Schmidt

"It's about as involved as the history of the college" is the way the Rev. C. G. Shalkhauser of the public relations office summed up the development of Homecoming on the Wartburg college campus.

This complication is due to the fact that traditional lines were carried over from the various colleges that merged to form the present institution.

IF PIPE DREAMS were a literary piece—and Grelling says it isn't—the writer would be forced to dedicate it to Glenn Purfett, freshman from Dundee. With a name like that, he should be writing this column.

OVERHEARD a report of Wartburg hall as the young lady prepared to leave with her date of the evening—"Say, what's your name?"

Whether it was the wind or Dr. Hiebert's organ that caused the damage, the roof of Old Main's porch certainly took a beating the other day.

RALPH TEWS reports that he gets better grades without a textbook than he does after the book store makes delivery.

THEN THERE'S George Pender with his troubles in trying to determine whether it's a "iota" subscript or a fly speck on his Greek text paper.

Why is it that six weeks' exams seem to come right before Homecoming?

WANDA ZILL still owes us an explanation about her knitting procedure. Or is it crocheting?

BEST SELLER of 1949 will undoubtedly be Meril ("Meril" to those who know him) Herder's report on the philosophy of the Kinsey report.

LOOKING OVER the audience in convocation, one can see students dozing but about everything—reading, reading or even sleeping. How many of us would do these things if we were attending a service in our home churches?

WHY NOT have given the Homecoming queen the glamour? The Homecoming queen could have held the ball for the kickoff.

A CERTAIN segment of the student body has been looking extremely well-dressed the past few days. Our future teachers have been doing their best to impress their first charges during initial practice teaching sessions.

MANY of the rooms in the dormitories are being shocked these days—some of them it is the first time they have seen a man in a year, and others we have open house more often?

Becker, Wignes Lead Knight Charges

By Bob Snyder

Marshall Becker and Stan Wignes were Coach Melvin Nelson's selections as co-captains for this afternoon's Homecoming clash with Westmar.

Marsh, a center, led the defensive unit of the Knights from his backer-cupper slot. He has been a defensive standout all season, breaking up many an opposing team's drive with his bone-crushing tackles. He is also the Knight who recovered the fumble of the BV three-yard line, which set up Wartburg's winning touchdown.

First Player Of Week

Last year he was the first man to receive the "W" Club's honorary title as Player-of-the-Week, captaining the Knights in the Luther game.

Stan directed action from his quarterback position on the offensive squad. There was much concern among the Knight fans when Bobby Campbell was injured in the Luther game. It looked as if the Knights would be without a passing attack. Wignes soon dispelled these thoughts as he completed four out of seven passes for 54 yards.

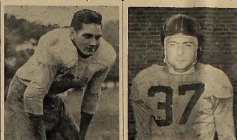

Wignes, a middle-line back, added another 32 yards on three completions in nine attempts in the Wartburg game. It was a passing game which was definitely missing from the Knight attack last year. He has been a leading running game to the delight of the Wartburg fans.

Both Seniors

Both men are seniors and future teachers. Marsh, majoring in English and history and Stan in math and physical education. Another similarity in the two captains is that they are both Iowa residents. Marsh from Dundee and Stan from Northwood.

Becker, 24-year-old, dark, curly-haired senior, is active in the "W" club, Kappa Delta Kappa and Castle Tales. His outside interests include music, especially of jazz origin—harps and hooting.

Senior student Senator Wignes is also dark and curly-haired but only 21-years old. Like Marsh, he is a member of the "W" club and KDKK, and like most athletes, he is very interested in hunting.

Mason JC Beats Squires, 52-7

In the shadows of Mason City packing houses there was him-burp made last night as the Mason City junior college eleven trampled over the Wartburg Squires 52-7.

Mason City scored almost at will as it racked 31 rallies in the first half. Fumbles set up the first two touchdowns and an intercepted pass the third.

The Squires failed to cross the fifty-yard line during the entire game until they put on a touchdown drive in the final two minutes of the game.

The Wartburg eleven began to show some spark as they began to rip off some lengthy punts. A 35-yard pass, Unmicht to Lengua, here to Bareis set up the Squire's only TD. Unmicht carried it for another first down, and Finnell went over from the short.

"Pet" Becker and Al Ennen were standouts for the Squires. Becker got off three punts averaging 38 yards and had a kick-off average of 33 yards. Dean Price led Squire ground gainers until he was injured in the third period.

Platte Named Weeks Athlete

Waldo Platte, 21-year-old senior from Waverly, was named Athlete-of-the-Week by the "W" club for his outstanding performance in the conference game with Buena Vista.

Playing both as defense and offense, the hard-hitting 175-pound right end was a constant threat to the "Bruers" backfield. The four-year veteran played the full 60 minutes at his favorite position after playing in the backfield last year.

This 5-foot, 11-inch blond, curly-haired athlete is a three-year letter winner in basketball, football and track. On the track, Waldo is definitely a mainstay and now holds the conference title in the two-mile event. Last year at the Viking Olympics he placed first in his specialty, the two-mile race, and thus enabled Wartburg to place second in the meet held at Augustana.

Platte is another outstanding athlete who came to Wartburg from Waverly. He had school where he played basketball and football. He was given the honor of all-conference end for three consecutive seasons and was also honored by being selected as fifth all-state end.

Platte, senior four-year teacher, is a physical education major. He is an active member of Kappa Delta Kappa, future teachers' group and the "W" club. Other outside interests include hunting and a part-time job.

From The Sidelines

By the Spectator

Homecoming game with Westmar this afternoon brings back memories of past fall classics on the Knights' home field. Last year the Redmen of Simpson lost the Knights' Homecoming exhibition as the visitors went down 26-13 in a game featured by Mark Klitt's brilliant kick-blocking, Stan Wignes' fine signal-calling and passing, and the Bruers' Hansa, Fredrick backfield combination. The 1947 season featured the unforgettable struggle with Luther in which the Knights matched victory in the first 40 seconds when Quarterback Darrel Loydille threw a touchdown pass to Luma Stegura for the margin of victory.

Today's tussle with the Maroon and Gold of Westmar gave the Knights a chance to overtop and launch in the series between the two Iowa conference teams. Westmar, formerly known as Western Union college of Le Mars, had beaten Wartburg three out of four times since 1939, twice by lopsided scores.

More Injuries Last Week

Knights again took it on the chin in the Buena Vista game when they followed the pattern set in the Luther struggle of striding home several banged up players. This time it was Roy Peterson with an injured leg, and hard-back Eldon Reeg, who suffered a dislocated arm. Last year Reeg came up with a broken ankle, which sidelined him from competition.

Iowa conference teams are jockeying into position for the 1949 football season. Last year's champion Dubuque is again in first position with two wins and no losses while Luther, Simpson and Central are tied for second with one win and no losses. Wartburg is tied with Upper Iowa with a record of one tie and two wins with one loss and Parsons and Buena Vista with two losses bring up the rear.

Look Around The Nation

Last Saturday Army's 21-7 victory ended the longest winning streak compiled by a major college football eleven in 25 years. First defeat Michigan suffered since the middle of the 1946 season ended a winning sequence of 25 games. Had the Wolverines won, they would have tied the modern record set by Cornell from 1921-1924.

Homecoming and football have taken precedence in the minds of most sports enthusiasts except to that small nucleus of die-hard Yankee fans who are still living over the burning pennant race and the route of the Dodgers in the World Series. Casey Stengel's boys from the Bronx proved to be the most courageous, fighting team in the history of baseball. Suffering more than 70 injuries during the season, the Yanks just refused to be beaten, and after Joe Mauer struck out the last Detroit batter, the Bronx Bombers were charged into their dressing room as the new World Champions.

Nass Is Best Guesser

Last week's football prediction contest resulted in a four-way tie between Clarence DeBorise, Rudy Kolberg, Milton Lorenz and Gilbert Nass, all who predicted seven correct results. On the basis of the best scores, Nass was awarded first place. Both Nass and DeBorise predicted the Army victory over Michigan, but slipped on the Iowa-Illinois contest.
